Community Service Project

Our 8th grade girls health class spent Monday evening at The Laredo Stroke Support Group meeting. The 8th grade girls took pumpkins, paints, stickers, and other decorations for the Stroke Survivors. Each 8th graders worked with a stroke survivor and helped them decorate their own pumpkin to take home for Halloween. The girls have been learning about stroke and the warning signs of stroke in their health class. The stroke survivors were elated to work with our girls. The 8th grade girls make us Patriot Proud!

Chess Club

- Congratulations to Aziel Quezada, Luis Lopez, Ishmael Mohammed, Sophia Grados, Jacob Masters, and Edward Maddox for competing in the LISD Chess Tournament held on Saturday, October 28, 2017. Thank you for showing up bright and early!!
- Ishmael Mohammed placed 4th place in the Fifth Grade Non-Rated Category.
- Edward Maddox placed 5th placed in the Middle School Non-Rated Category.

Over 561 students participated in the tournament. Also, a big thank you to the parents who took the students donuts, pizza, and drinks! It was a wonderful experience for all! NO chess club today because of the Fall Carnival!!

RILO

In RILO news, several RILO members visited the library at El Cenizo, Texas to donate books on Saturday, October 21, 2017, from 12-2:00 pm. They will be visiting Alma Pierce Elementary tomorrow at 3:00 pm for another book donation and afternoon of reading.

Athletics

Volleyball

Our 7th and 8th grade teams had successful volleyball seasons. The final won and loss records for our teams:

8th grade	8 W	3 L
7th grade	9 W	1 L

Our 3rd, 5th and 6th continue to play in the boys and girls club league play-offs. Their season will finish this weekend.

Flag Football

We had a total of four teams this year. 1st grade, 2nd grade, 3rd grade team and a middle school that is a combination of boys from the 4th, 5th, and 6th grades. All teams did an outstanding job and were competitive all season. Our 1st and 2nd grade teams are in the play-offs! Good luck Patriots!

Basketball

Pre-K, Kinder and 1st grades are now practicing and preparing for the season. Their season will start the week of November 6.

2nd – 6th grade will start in January, if your son or daughter is interested in playing r you are interested in coaching please notify your teacher and they will notify Dr. Romo. Practice sessions are set to start next week.
